

The following building information is posted as required by SF 2368.

The Corning Community School District has two attendance centers. The Corning Elementary Building is under construction for the 2024-2025 school year. The Corning High School Building is 41,562 square feet and has an enrollment capacity of 750 students. The Corning High School building is utilized as an educational learning facility for students in grades 9-12.

The Corning Community School District does not have any educational buildings which are vacant.